WE ARE ONE!

Told By: Ms. Mocha's Students

A trio of individuals find themselves stuck in the same room. They're dancing around effortlessly until they notice that they're all mimicking each other's every move. They're completely in sync. They come to find that its not three individuals, it's one; they are one!

Dancers:

Faye Conway, Logan Kim, Mia Rivera

ALICE IN WONDERLAND

Told By: Ms. Rachel's Students

It is a bright sunny day, and all the children from around the neighborhood are running and playing at the park. Alice is excited to join in and make new friends but sadly, the other children are not very nice to her. She ends up alone and falls asleep under a tree. When she wakes up, she spies one of her friends.. with a tail? "I'm late!" The Rabbit says, and they run off into the woods. Alice follows and somehow ends up in a mysterious and wonderful world. Alice encounters a mysterious Cheshire Cat who sends her off in the wrong direction. She comes upon a garden of living, talking flowers that waltz about, meets a magic Caterpillar dancing on their many legs, and finally finds The White Rabbit at the most peculiar tea party. She continues to follow the Rabbit and happens upon a deck of cards painting the rose bushes red after they mistakenly planted white ones. The Queen hates white roses. The Queen arrives, sees the white roses, and orders the cards to be punished. She chases Alice and the Rabbit back through the woods and in the midst of the chaos, Alice wakes up.

THE TELESCOPE

Told By: Ms. Anna's Students

This is a story about 3 sisters, one who wants to see the world and two who want to never leave home. They find a compromise by building a telescope, but when a fight causes them to break it, the pieces get taken by creatures from far away: an octopus, a tree, and a star. The sisters must go on an adventure to reunite the pieces of the telescope, and discover some new friends along the way.
